ENGLISH

VIOLENCE HAS MANY SIDES

Domestic violence isn't just physical abuse. Often it's a slow process and stays hidden for a long time. If you are not allowed to access finances, meet your friends, or are being insulted or threatened, it counts as domestic violence. We define domestic violence as violence from (ex-)partners or within a family.

Listen to your gut feelings.
In order to stop domestic violence, everyone involved needs help.
This flyer is designed to help you find resources to receive help and support within the Hochtaunuskreis.

Nothing justifies domestic violence!

IN AN EMERGENCY

In case of an emergency call the police: 110

The police are tasked to protect you and can expel the attacker from the home for 14 days.
If you have been harmed physically, see a doctor and ask for written documentation of your injuries.

Medical emergency care for rape

Contact the emergency care unit of the Hochtaunusklinik in Bad Homburg.

If you'd like to be supported or accompanied, contact the LOTTE – AWO Counseling Center at 0 6172 - 13 70 993

Important to note!

Document the acts of violence and threats that you have suffered by taking notes.

COUNSELING AND SUPPORT FOR WOMEN* AND GIRLS*

Are you experiencing domestic violence? You don't need to face it alone. We can inform you about your rights, counsel you on which steps to take next, refer you to others who can help if needed or speak with you about the violence you have suffered.
